

TRAUB DESIGN ASSOCIATES

Complete Museum Exhibit Design Services

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY:

Nicholas Traub, Exhibit and Graphic Designer and Photographer, has been involved in Traub Design Associates for the past 6 years. He has created graphic elements ranging from exhibition labels, photographic collages and even a huge 780 square foot historic mural. His eye for perfection and clarity has translated into control of the complete graphic design and photographic processes, from creation through printing and installation, assuring the client of quality graphics at an affordable price.

Nicholas is an integral part of the Exhibit Design process and was a major contributor to the Beaver Area Historical Museum, FedEx (RPS) corporate exhibits, Banneker-Douglas Museum and the Oil City Historical Mural as well as many projects designed but yet to be built.

Nicholas holds a BFA in Photography and Graphic Design from the Pennsylvania State University and has created award winning graphic display boards for architectural firms in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia and his photographs have been published in several trade journals. He is currently completing a photographic project for the Historic American Buildings Survey (HABS) recording historic structures in the western half of Pennsylvania.
